- Assisting with database and organizational management of costumes/props.
- Assisting in the care and maintenance of costumes/props during performance run.
- Assist with pre-show prep and work backstage at performances of Broadway Under the Stars.
- Liaising with other departments for special events such as Skits Under the Stars.

4 | PROFILE OF IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal Inter/Apprentice should also be:

- Highly organized, resourceful, detailed-oriented, and a quick learner.
- Have a passion for design and creation of costumes and props.
- Experience working in a theater environment within a props or costume department.
- Able to connect with colleagues and actors to listen and respond appropriately.
- Able to prioritize workload and solve problems efficiently and quickly.
- Exceptional in guest and client service areas.
- Able to multitask in a fast paced environment
- Highly energetic and positive with a "can-do" attitude.
- Aligned with our Company Core Values.
- Committed to the growth of diversity, inclusion, and equity within Transcendence.

5 | PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Professional development is of the utmost priority for Transcendence's Summer Intern/Apprentice Program. In addition to being essential to the operations of Transcendence's summer season, Interns/Apprentices will have the opportunity to be mentored by professionals in their fields. These mentors will provide invaluable information to further the careers of Interns/Apprentices, and shape the minds of theatre leaders of the future. In addition, Interns/Apprentices will have various learning experiences and workshops led by Apprentice Directors, Colin McAdoo. These workshops can include, but are not limited to: resume building, website building, interviewing, auditioning, networking, etc.
